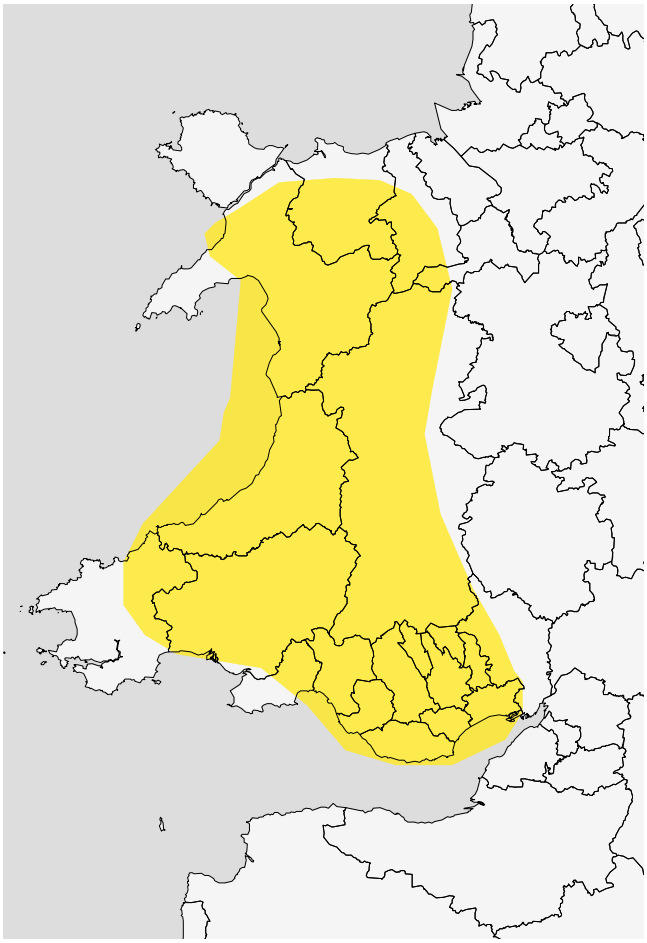
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Wed 27 Dec 2023 and
16:00 Wed 27 Dec 2023



Heavy rain brings the potential for disruption to travel and a risk of flooding.

What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely

Further details

Outbreaks of heavy rain will continue to move northeastwards across Wales during today. Across the warning area 30-40 mm of rain is expected to accumulate quite widely. Across high ground of south and west Wales 70-90 mm of rain could fall by the end of this period. Strong winds will likely exacerbate any impacts from the rain.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding.

If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.

Reason for update
